

Eva Mutschler

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

CLASSES TAUGHT:

American Literature/Exp. Writing, Honors American Literature/Exp. Writing, Contemporary Literature

ABOUT ME:

I earned a BA and MA in English from Oakland University and received my teaching certificate through the University of Michigan-Dearborn. I have been a Catholic educator for 12 years. I have also taught writing at the college level. I teach 10th-grade American Literature, Honors 10th-grade American Literature, and 12th-grade Contemporary Literature.

GRADING POLICY

I grade using a total points system.

HOMEWORK/LATE WORK POLICY

Homework will be given 2-3 times per week. I use a Daily Agenda slide that shows exactly what work is done in class each day and when work is due. All materials are posted on Google Classroom, and extra handouts are located in a folder on the student table in the classroom.

Late work is accepted within 24 hours of the due date and time for 60% credit. Exceptions can be made if I am notified of extenuating circumstances before or on the due date.

HOW CAN A STUDENT SUCCEED IN YOUR CLASS?

Bring all necessary materials to each class every day.

Pay attention in class, take notes, and participate according to the teacher's expectations.

Ask questions to clarify points of instruction or to prevent misunderstanding.

Accurately record homework assignments before leaving class.

Complete all homework, plan effectively for completing work, and use study time productively.

Make effective use of the student day planner and Student/Parent Portal

Strive for nothing less than his or her best.

BEST WAY TO CONTACT YOU/COMMUNICATE

The best way to reach me is by email. I will respond within 24 hours or on the first school day following a weekend.
