ABOUT ME:

Hey there! My name is Lanzio Palombo. I became a teacher because I love reading and writing, and I want to inspire others to fall in love with these things! My favorite authors are Kurt Vonnegut and Margaret Laurence; who are your favorite authors? When I am not preparing to teach at Bishop Foley Catholic High School, I like to play video games, hang out with my two puppies, golf, and spend too much time on TikTok.

GRADING POLICY

All of my classes use a total points system. Each point matters. Homework, daily writing, smaller quizzes range from ~1-25 points. Projects, tests, and papers range from ~20-60 points. Homework and classwork grades are entered before the end of the quarter. Missing assignments, even small ones, will be detrimental to an overall grade in this system. *Elective grading (Publications, Creative Writing) may vary.

HOMEWORK/LATE WORK POLICY

Late work is taken on a case-by-case and student-by-student basis. Students should communicate absences or the need for extended time responsibly and ahead of time to be given consideration. Homework varies from night to night, but it can always be found under Classwork on Google Classroom. Students should also be keeping an agenda themselves; the itinerary for the day will be on the overhead and discussed at the beginning of class. Missing assignments will become 0's by end of card marking.

HOW CAN A STUDENT SUCCEED IN YOUR CLASS?

A student with zero missing assignments. A student with good behavior and work ethic. A student who does the assigned reading and continues to get better... These are the types of students will do well in my class!
